The gracious orders of H H the Maharaja were accordingly issued in Govt Sro no 3142 dated 14th December 1906 (Please see M. 2160-06)

Manchanahalli Venkatasubbiah son-in-law of the donor Seetaramiah - petitioned Government stating that his father-in-law is dead and offering certain lands not only for the conduct of Servanthas intended during the Girija Kalyana in the Sri Srikanteswara-Swamy temple at Nanjangud, but also for certain other charitable purposes. o.541 Dy 3-8-1904. (Slip)

The petition was forwarded to the Dy. Commr of the Mysore Distt and that Officer has submitted a detailed report thereon together with the records relating thereto.

From the Amildar Mr N Rama Rao's

GPB—3,000—22-6 06

English report it is observed that the total extent of land endowed to the Sri Srikanteswaraswamy temple at Nanjangud is A. 15-1½, assessed at Rs 102-10-0; that these lands have been leased out and the total realizations therefrom is 42 kandies of paddy. The Amildar reports that all the registered documents relating to the petitioner's title as well as to the leases of the present tenants were produced before him and were returned after scrutiny; that the petitioner's title seems to be good; all Govt dues have been paid up to date; and that the future management of the lands will entail no possible strain or trouble. He further states that if ordered, he will obtain an assignment from the petitioner and take the necessary mutchalikas (Slip B)

from the ryots

(Slip C) The petitioner offers to endow the new Chattram at Kolumchinakatte with his half share in the inam village of Sannamanya gere mana-gamahalli. In his deposition before the Amildar, he states that he purchases the Kritti in question (for ~~Rs~~ Rs 1000/-) - nominally in the name of his brother Nanjundiah, that he is prepared to ~~give~~ make over all the documents in his possession in regard to this Kritti as soon as the opening of a chattram is sanctioned and prays that the sum of ~~Rs~~ Rs 200 odd being the net-realizations therefrom may be appropriated for conducting feeding in the Chattram (The Amildar estimates the gross-annual income to be ~~Rs~~ Rs 400/-). further States that the arrears due on the Veritti for the past years stated to be Rs 1000/- may be recovered by Govt, and wet lands may be purchased, and prays that the net incomes may be utilized towards daily Nainevyam in the Sri Anjaneyaswamy temple at Chunchinakatte and also a sum of Rs 6/- may be ~~spent~~ expended towards Ane Utsavam during the Car festival of Sri Rama Navami. His brother has given a statement agreeing to part with the ?. (Slip E).

The Amildar states that after paying the Govt. dues and cost of collection, the annual net income is Rs 160/-. which would be a most welcome addition to the resources of the Chunchinakatte Kshetram, and recommends that the charitable offer may be accepted.

Muzrai Secretariat. | File No. of 190

(Paper under disposal)

The Dy Commr also recommends that the charitable offer of Mr. Venkatarambiah may be accepted and his share in the Inam Village ordered to be taken under Govt. management.

Muzrai Secretary's Remarks.

There will be no objection to accept the offer. Before final orders are passed in this case, a proper deed of gift duly executed and registered will have to be obtained from the donor as was done in the case of the offer of Mr. Pleader Ramaiya of Seringapatam. The Deputy Commissioner may be informed

No 2901 dated 18th December 1907

States that there will be no objection to accept the offer, and requests that a proper deed of gift duly executed and registered may be obtained from the donor so far as the lands intended for the sevartha during the Girija Kalyana is concerned, and further states that the donor himself should recover the outstanding arrears on the lands intended to be gifted for the benefit of the Chunchunkatte Chattram, and also purchase the lands for the temples at Chunchunkatte, and then address him in the matter of gifting these lands also.

From The Same.

No. 309, dated 18th January 1910

Submits a deed of gift duly executed by the donor Mr. Venkatasubbiah, on a 50 Re Stamp paper, making over the lands intended for Santarpane during Girija Kalyana in the Sri Srikanteswaraswami Temple at Nanjangud, and states that the deed of gift of other lands for the other sevarthas at Chunchunkatte was returned to the party owning this defective title to them.

Flag A) From the deed of gift and the list of lands submitted by Mr Venkatasubbiah, it appears that the lands gifted for Santarpane during Girija Kalyana at Nanjangud measure A. G. 6 - 24½ and are assessed at Rs 106-12-0 and that they yield 61¼ Khandris of paddy. The donor is also said to have produced his title deeds to those lands and

Sir,

Adverting to your letter No. 2901 dated 20th December 1907 calling upon me to obtain from the donor Mancha-nahally Venkata Subbiah a proper deed of gift duly executed and Registered, I have the honor to State that the deed of gift and other papers were received with the Sub Divisional officer's yadast No. 527/462 dated 8/10th December 1908.

2. On a perusal of the records I called for further information from the Sub divisional officer (Vide yadast No: 550 dated 21st/22nd December 1908 filed with the accompanying records; but before the Sub divisional officer's report was received, Venkata Subbiah (the donor) appeared before me on 16th December 1909 and presented a petition requesting that the deed of gift relating to the yeremanaganahally village Vrithi may be cancelled and returned to him with other documents produced by him before the Amildar of the yedatore Taluk as the Vrithi lands involved a dispute of minor and he or his brother had to seek redress in a civil court for the recovery of the arrears (Vide petition No: 249 dated dated 16th December 1909 filed with the accompanying records).

3. As the petitioner himself admits that the Vritti lands offered by him for charitable purposes viz for the benefit of the Chattram at Chunchinkatte in the Yedatore Taluk are not free from encumbrances, I am not in favor of accepting the offer of the Vritti. I have therefore directed the Amildar to give an endorsement to the petitioner declining to accept the offer of the Yeremanaganahally village Vritti as it is not free from encumbrances.

4. As directed in the letter under reply, Venkata Subbaiah has produced a duly Registered deed of gift on a Rs 50/- Stamps paper (filed with the accompanying records) for the lands endowed by him to the Sri Srikanteswara Swami temple at Nanjangud for conducting Santarpane to Brahmans during the annual Girijakalyana at Nanjangud.

5 On a perusal of the records it is seen that the Registered deed of gift relating to the yeremanaganahally village Vritti has been returned to the petitioner's brother Anantaramiah by the Amildar of the yedatore taluk on the 25th May 1909.

6. The donor Venkata Subbiah requests that the marginally noted persons may be appointed to supervise the feeding and that if Government pleases

*(1) The Amildar of the Nanjangud Taluk
(2) Agnihotri Kumaraswamy Deekshit
(3) Dallali Nanjundiah at Mysore.
(4) Manchanahally Ananta Ramiah brother of Dallali Nanjundiah

pleases he or his brother Ananta Ramiah may be permitted to supervise the cultivation only of the lands in question

7. As the donor has stated that the Khata of the lands ~~is~~ mentioned in the deed of gift may be transferred to the name of Sri Srikanteswara Swamie at Nanjangud the prayer of the petitioner may be granted

8. The file of vernacular papers bearing on the subject ending with the Sub divisional officer's yadast No. 444/492 dated 6th January 1910 is herewith submitted for reference
